

The proposed changes to displace FM translators and specifically K-Love with a new broadcast service known as Low Power FM (LPFM) would be a dis-service to the listening public in the Chicago area.

The K-Love signal provides family based , morally sound Christian entertainment not otherwise available locally. In addition local events which are open to the public and free of charge are promoted for the benefit of the listening audience.